Timeline Photos. JFS is excited to receive the digin @citygreennj grant again this year to help with our community garden. If you are interested in volunteering in our garden, please call 973-777-7638. Though there is no explicit afterlife in Judaism, many Jews believe that after death the soul of the deceased is judged and those who led perfect lives are let into the World to Come, while those who did not must wait for one year to enter the World to Come. The Jewish Hospice Program provides emotional, practical and spiritual support to individuals and their families coping with life threatening illness.
