Cross stitch featured an intersecting stitch that forms an "X" or cross while needlepoint traditionally featured the tent stitch, which was half of a cross stitch. Both crafts are commonly done on canvas fabric, though the stiffness and weight of the fabric varies. The type of thread used in cross stitch and needlepoint often differs as well. This cross stitch chart book features designs with a western flair: The Bronc Buster, The Lone Star Flag, Cotton, The Polled Hereford, The Brahman, The Cowboy, the Armadillo, On the Eighth Day, and outlines of states Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma, and California.
